Dear Editor-in-Chief,

We thank you for the opportunity to revise our manuscript. Also, we are very grateful to the reviewers who have devoted their time to provide notes and suggestions on our manuscript.

We have revised the manuscript according to suggestions and notes from reviewers as well as suggestions from the editorial team. We have also summarized and reduced it to 12 pages without changing the meaning of the results, and even our manuscript has become more focused on analysis, conclusions, and suggestions.

Regarding the style of citation and bibliography, we have also adapted to the Chicago style citation. Overall, we are trying to revise our manuscript to support the quality of this journal.

Finally, we have resubmitted the manuscript that we have revised through the review page on the online journal system.

We are waiting for further information from you.

Thank you.

Best regards,

Dear Author!

The maximum length of the acceptable article can be 12 pages in Times New Roman with 1.5 spaces between the lines. Please shorten your article accordingly.

Please format your articles alike in the attached example and supply all necessary information in the proper format at the beginning and at the end of the articles (annotation, abstract, info about the author etc.)

Please use Chicago style for references, this is the new requirement:

(Rostkowski 2016, 6-7

Please upload updated article to the OJS (not as a new submission).

The numbered conclusions are the strict requirement of the format.

If you would have any questions please do not hesitate to ask me.

We are planning to include your publication in the upcoming issue so please try to correct your article as soon as possible. We are very limited in time at this phase.

Best regards,
Executive Editor
