NOTIFICATION OF APSSR SCREENING RESULT

AsiaPacificSocialScienceReviewJournal <asiapacificsocialsciencereviewjournal@dlsu.edu.ph> Sun, Feb 28, 2016, 4:07 PM

Dear Mr. Marwah:

Greetings in St. La Salle!

The result of the initial screening revealed that your work is more appropriate as a Research Brief.

With your permission, we can line up your article as a Research Brief in our future APSSR issues (from December 2016 issue onwards).

If you agree to publish with us as a Research Brief, this means that you have to cut down your article to at least 6,000 to 8,000 words with the re-submission deadline set on June 30, 2016. It shall be exempted from the double blind peer review that Full Articles undergo, but will have to undergo finalization and copyediting later on. Being queued up as a Research Brief means that it can be considered for publication in a future issue of the APSSR but not under the issue in progress.

Please let us know your decision.

Thank you for considering the APSSR!

Sincerely,

Besok hujan 16:27

CONFIRMATIONS

sofa marwah <sofamarwah75@gmail.com> Tue, Mar 1, 2016, 9:20 PM

Dear all...

I checked my article that entitled Political Representation for Javanese Women in The Affirmation Policy in Indonesia and I found that my article has 3866 words.

Your guideline explain that a Research Brief must contain 3000-5000 words. Does amount of words of my article fulfill the requirement as Research Brief?

But your email stated that I has to cut down my article to at least 6000 to 8000 words.

So give me your confirmation in order to my article can publish in Asia Pacific Social Review as Research Brief. I want to improve my article according to your requirement.

Thank you very much,

Sincerely,

Dr.Sofa Marwah, M.Si

Dear Dr. Marwah:

The number of words is no longer a problem, and need not be revised. The length is okay for a Research Brief.

Kindly just make sure references follow the APA Manual 6th ed.

Sincerely,

Belle
