However, it need revision. Preposition words in the title should be waritten with no capital letter of initial word. The number of words abstract and introduction is still too long, a maximum of 200 and 600 words, respectively. The table that is presented must be referenced and presented after referencing, do not present pictures or table directly after the < subtitles. Writing commas with periods ('. "). Libraries need to be rewritten according to the Biodiv style.
