Dear Editorial officer

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to publish an article in the JDMLM and sending an acceptance letter & article layout. But there are still some parts in the article that need to be revisited, we attach the following information:

1. Page 2745 a (in the circled part of article there are a different font, it should be time new roman font)
2. Page 2745 b (remark of Remofal efficiency start from Where then etc, the phrase should in line with first line in left colour)
3. Page 2746 (caption of figure 4 on page 2476 separately on page 2477 for clarity should be placed under figure 4 on page 2476)

if the pages is revisited it will display a neater article layout in section:

Growth and yield of shallot (Page 2747) will be followed by a discussion sentence, not separated in the next column and on the part of Acknowledgment (Page 2748) will become one part, not separated in the next column

I wish there is still a chance to revise the appearance of our article, thanks for your attention.

Kindly regards
 Okti Herliana
